THE SIAMESE TWINS.

AN AUTOPSY SOUGHT FOR.

WILMINGTON, N. C., January 31.—The Siamese twins who left Philadelphia last Thursday to make an autopsy of the Siamese twins at Mt. Airy, reached Greensboro, N.

C., yesterday. They were profoundly impressed by the proceedings, and stated that they would not return to Philadelphia. It is generally conceded that the physicians have agreed to pay a considerable sum for the privilege of making an autopsy, and that it will be done in the most private manner.

The Associated Press had engaged a special reporter to accompany the physicians from Greensboro to Mt. Airy and make a full report of the autopsy, but the enterprise was abandoned when it was found that the physicians were determined to keep their movements and operations strictly secret.

WEATHER.

PARTLY CLOUDY IN GEORGIA.

region, and thence westward to the upper Missouri valley, falling barometer, rising the greater portion of Sunday.

For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, thence west to Kansas and northward to Lake Michigan, rising temperature, falling barometer with generally cloudy weather and areas of rain and snow.

For the Gulf States, areas of light rain, rising temperature.

For the Middle and South Atlantic States, early cloudy weather, variable winds, and a decided change of temperature.

SPEECH ON CIVIL RIGHTS—FRENCH

MINUTE NEWS.

CHEAP TRANSPORTATION.

A CONGRESSIONAL MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT.

WASHINGTON, January 31.—An adjourned meeting of the members of the House of Representatives in favor of cheap transportation was held to-night at the Capitol. The attendance was small. Those most prominent at the first meeting were absent.

Representative Stone, of Missouri, presented a preamble setting forth among other things that the Association of New Orleans, before opened to any improvement of the New Orleans channelled Capt. Howell, of the U. S. Engineers, to abandon his work by placing obstructions in his way, the Association deriving its income from tugging and lighting vessels, and the U. S. Agent has no power to oppose the hindering course of the Association; therefore, resolved, that the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled be requested to pass a law to facilitate the execution of and to protect public works of river and harbor improvements to the end that private persons and corporations shall not destroy such works without incurring a liable penalty, and also to appropriate a sum of not less than $150,000 to continue the work of improving the bar-at the mouth of the Mississippi River during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1875.

After Conference it was voted as the unanimous sense of the meeting that Representative Stone, on Monday, bring the subject before the House. After amending the first part of the resolution in the form of instruction to the proper committee to consider and take action on the subject, meeting adjourned for three weeks.

SPAIN.

CONFLICTING NEWS—GREAT UNCERTAINTY.

NEW YORK, January 31.—A dispatch from Havana, via Key West, says: The officials are depressed in consequence of war news from Spain. Santander is the principal distributing provision point for Cuba.

It was the general expectation that the Capitan-

General would formally declare the island in a state of siege, and a heavy conscription of Grecoes will follow. 20,000 men are regarded as necessary.

an open air meeting in Greenwich on Saturday and Mr. Nolan's supporters are preparing for a monster parliament in Southwark. To-night his friends this evening. He spoke in favor of compulsory education.

Mr. Butler contests the election in Manchester.

Puerto Principe in which the Spaniards under Por-under Manzanillo were defeated because they received five months without pay, and then received it in paper. The President Governor Gavarran returns to Spain. Prominent Cubans believe if Don Carlos succeeds he will call Cuba to the United States. There is a strong Carlist element in Havana

Sunday Reading.
John Wesley was a Mason.
Some with tax his church property.
In England the moment he died there were 19,483 pious of religious worship, occupied by 181 different denominations.
The Congregationalist says that spasmodic charity is a species of "lightning-bug piety," bright while it lasts, but cold, and soon out.
A young clergyman, small of stature, preaching as a candidate in a certain place, one Sabbath, peering over the pulpit Bible, announced as his text: "It is I. Be not afraid."
A preacher of Knox county, Ky., informs the public, through the Barbourville Mountain Echo, why he left the "Gospel field." After preaching six years, averaging one sermon a day, 2,194 sermons, and converting 1,163 persons, he says that he received $797 for all his work, being a small fraction over thirty-six cents a sermon, and about seventy-seven cents a sinner.
Every man's past life should be his critic, his censor, his guide. He who lives, and is done with life the moment he drops hour by hour from his hands, is not half a man. He is like a plucked plant that stands in water without roots of its own, and can have no growth, and soon fades and passes away.
Henry Ward Beecher says in the Christian Union: "To build a theology solely by the logical faculty is as if a man were to try to make a flower with carpenter's tools. But this is what men have done from the time when Paul wrote to the Corinthians against enticing words of man's wisdom: down to the latest exponent of Jonathan Edwards."
The Old South Church, Worcester, Mass., has voted, by a majority of 67 against 29, in favor of increasing the deacons by the addition of four ladies as deacons. The church in its resolution says: "In availing herself of the help and counsel of godly women, this church seeks to recognize and imitate the policy and usage of the Congregational Church of the New Testament." ot Paul did vote on that side.
Bishop Cummins, since he commenced preaching in New York, has attracted large congregations to St. Andrew's Hall, and no little stir has been created by the new movement. The Episcopalians, a Church journal it is said, has practically become an exponent of the Reformed Church, so that it is no longer without an organ. The Episcopal Church, in the meantime, seems to be trying to navigate between Scylla and Charybdis under the names of Rome and Schism.
Whether she will get safely through is a question of skillful seamanship, but all hands are considerably exercised.
"There is a tendency in these days," said Beecher, in a recent evening's sermon, "to account naturally for the passage of the Children of Israel through the Red Sea. Now, I like these old stories, and I am not going to have the bottom knocked out of them by materialism. I shall stand by the good old history, and glory in it. Yes, they did go through the sea—and it was a miracle, too.
And the fish looked out at them from the water on either side, and wondered who these other monsters were."
The Roman Catholics, as well as Second Adventists, have their pet theories and interpretations of the mysterious later-day prophecies. The immediate prospect indicated by them they consider exceedingly gloomy, but in the background is the vague promise of a glorious victory for the church. The predictions current among devout Catholics in London run something like this:
Immediately after the death of Pope Pius IX, a formidable schism in the Roman Church is to occur: there will succeed to him a true Pope and anti-Pope, they will both die very soon; to them will succeed another Pope and anti-Pope; they will live but a short time, and at their death the schism will end; the whole Church will recognize the new and true Pope, and the triumphs of the Church over the world will begin afresh.
The Papal bull, signed May 28, 1873, for regulating the next Papal election, provides for the suspension of all those laws relating to the place where the election is to be held —that is, in the place where the Roman Pontiff may have died—and also those laws regarding the ceremonies, which by no means constitute the character of a canonical election. The Cardinals are absolved from their oaths to observe the constitutions with these provisions, and are permitted to fix the day of the future election; but they are forbidden to discuss the subject of the successor as long as the present Pope lives. The reason for these provisions is because "circumstances have so changed, that it is no longer to be feared from crafty men who only call themselves Catholics, as well as from those belonging to the bands of heretics." Bishop Cheney's trustees have stolen the march on the orthodox Episcopal claimants to his see. The church was to have been sold at auction a few days since, because of non-payment of interest on a morgage of $25,000, held by the Chicago Presbyterian Theological Seminary. This occasion was to have been seized by the opponents of the Reformed Episcopal Church to gain legal possession of the church, thus ousting the rebellious Cheney.
Last Saturday, however, the coveted church was quietly auctioned off to a representative of the Cheney party, to satisfy a mortgage for $7,500 held by a Mr. Vaughan of Rhode Island, the existence of which was not generally known. Naturally, there is much chagrin felt by "the party of the other party" at this cunning flunk-movement, which they characterize as one of fraud and collusion, and the end is not yet.
Ecclesiastical upheavals continue. The Third Reformed (Dutch) Church of Philadelphia lately withdrew from its connection with the Classis of Philadelphia, and united with the Western Presbyterian Church of that city. The united body, under the name of the Reformed Church, was subsequently received by the Central Presbytery of Philadelphia. The Reverend Charles Wadsworth, D. D., pastor of the extinct Reformed Church, then applied to the Classis for a letter of dismission to the Presbytery; but this was refused, whereupon he renounced the jurisdiction of the Classis, and was a unanimous vote of the Presbytery received and enrolled as one of its members. Thereupon the Classis assembled and cited Dr. Wadsworth and one of his elders to appear for trial. They did not appear, and after going through with the forms of a trial they were deposited—the former from the ministry and the latter from his eldership.
From the Catholic Telegraph: On the testimony of accurately prepared statistics and our own observation as a priest in a large city for more than a decade of years, we can say, without the slightest fear of mistake, that nowhere in the whole world does Catholic faith show so much enduring and widespread vitality as in the United States.
With many obstacles in our path, of which the Catholic priesthood in other lands know nothing, laboring in the midst of poverty and ignorance, for what? For the souls of men.
Europe is responsible, we assure the learned editor of the Universe, that there would have been no smouldering ruins in Paris to record the "savage" triumph of infidelity, had that unfortunate city contained as many true Catholics as one of the large cities of this country. There are nearly forty millions of nominal Catholics in France.
We can count but one-fifth of that number, yet there are more Catholics receiving in any one year by the adult portion of Catholic Americans than by the whole French nation.

MODE OF DRAWING.
There will be upon the stage two glass wheels the contents of which can be seen by all the spectators.
Committee of two citizens, in no way connected with the management and of undoubted integrity, having first counted and examined, will place in the larger wheel 2,600 tickets exactly alike, and having printed numbers from one to 12,000 corresponding to all the tickets and a similar committee, having first counted and examined, will place in the smaller wheel the prizes which are placed in the smaller wheel. Both wheels will then be turned until their contents are thoroughly mixed.
A boy under fifteen years of age, bloodless, will then draw from the larger wheel one of the 12,000 tickets, and holding it up in full view of the spectators and auditors its number will be called by the clerk appointed for this purpose, so that all present may hear. The number will then be passed to the committee of citizens, who will say whether the number has been rightly called. It will then be passed to a registrar, who will direct, and record in a book prepared for this purpose. A boy of similar age will then draw from the smaller wheel one of its tickets, and the number drawn will be called out. The prizes will then belong to the ticket bearing the number drawn immediately before it. Thus the prizes will continue, drawing first from the large wheel containing the tickets, and then from the small or prize wheel until all the tickets containing the prizes are drawn. An accurate record of the above will be kept on file, certified to by the committee of disinterested citizens on file.
The prizes below $100 in value are approximations, and will be determined and paid as follows: The numbers of all the tickets sold being considered in a series, automatically formed, and having the highest number, 12,600, and the lowest, 1, brought together, then whatever extra use in this circle may be for Whatever you are from nature, keep to it; never desert your own line of talent. If Providence only intended you to write posies for rings, or motes for twelve cakes, keep to posies and motes; a good motto for a twelfth cake is more respectable than a villainous epigram on twelve cakes. He who is intended to do great things, he will be anything else, and you will be ten thousand times worse than nothing.

FEDERAL COURT DECISION.

United States District Court Northern District of Georgia. Bill for injunction and relief. In bankruptcy. In re Daniel P. Hill. Benjamin G. Lockett vs. Daniel P. Hill. The bankrupt and his assignee, Edward P. Hoge.

ERIKSKE, J.

This suit arises out of a mortgage given by Hill in January, 1873, to Lockett. The bill states that Hill being indebted to Rust, Johnson & Co., (of which firm Lockett was a member), and in settlement and liquidation thereof, Hill drew his draft on Rust, Johnson & Co., payable to his own order for $7,475.75, and it was accepted by them and transferred to Lockett, and to secure its payment and in consideration of supplies and money, and to discharge a certain draft in favor of Ketchum & Hartridge, Hill executed the mortgage to Lockett on 1,385 acres of land and certain personal property, and which mortgage contained, among other stipulations, a power to sell the land on non-payment.

Lockett also alleges that he was placed in possession of the property, real and personal, on the 24th of December, 1873, and continued in possession until he conveyed the land under his power, on the 18th of December, 1873, for $4,875, to the firm (of which he was then a member) of Rust Johnson & Co., and that he is still in possession of the personal property.

He prays an injunction against Hoge, the assignee, to restrain him from selling any of the personal property, or interfering with any of the mortgaged property real or personal; and asks for a subpoena against Hill, the bankrupt, and Hoge; and the bill prays for "other and further relief."

There is an addendum to the bill—an offer to take the property at a fair valuation to be determined by the Court, or to sell the personal property by virtue of his power and accounts to the assignee for any surplus; or permit from owner of land where produce is raised. Withdrawn.

To amend section 4483 of the Code of Georgia. Amended so as to punish for selling or buying farm produce between sunset and sunrise. Judiciary Committee offered a substitute. Tabled for the present.

To amend the act incorporating Springfield in Effingham county. Lost.
